

ALAMEDA MOSAIC EDUCATIONAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The 2021-2022 school year is here and will be full of changes for us all. Many of our students will attend classes in-person for the first time in a few months, for the first time in a year or ever! This is a great opportunity to rebuild communities at our school sites, as we know that many families felt disconnected during the last year of virtual learning.

The Alameda Mosaic Educational Advisory Committee is forming to build a community to support our African-American/Black/Multiethnic students and their families. We are inviting all interested families to participate.

The first Alameda Mosaic Educational Advisory Committee's event of the year will take place on August 31, 2021 from 6:30-8:00pm via Zoom. Please join us, connect with other AUSD parents, and enjoy an inspiring welcome message from High Expectations Founder, Teneh Weller.

Please complete the interest form via the link below to receive the meeting registration link and future communications from Alameda Mosaic.
