2023 EARHART READ-A-THON

March 13 - April 5

Special Events	MON	TUES	WED	THURS	FRI	SAT/SUN
Leprechauns hid treasure in the Media Center. Can you find it?	13 Set up your Pledgestar page and send out 10 fundraising emails.	14 Start logging your reading on Pledgestar!	15 Read to a sibling, parent, or another family member.	16 Tell a friend about a book you just read and enjoyed.	DRAWING #1 17 Set up your website to be entered in the prize drawing!	18/19 Visit a used bookstore. Buying used books is good for the environment!
Submit your "favorite book" poster for a chance to have it featured on campus	20 Wear a (school appropriate 🙂) t-shirt with words.	21 Readers are leaders! Read about a job you'd like to have.	22 Share books with a friend (make sure it's ok with your parents)	23 Halfway Point! Send a reminder email to people who haven't donated yet.	DRAWING #2 24 Log reading minutes in Pledgestar to be entered in the prize drawing!	25/26 Visit the library and ask a librarian for a book recommendation.
DIY bookmarks in Media Center	27 Listen to an audiobook or watch a video read-aloud.	28 Read the lyrics to your favorite song and sing along!	29 Read a book set in a different country.	30 Read a book that was turned into a movie.	DRAWING #3 31 Send at least one donation request in Pledgestar to be entered in the prize drawing.	April 1/2 Read a new recipe, then help cook it!
Be on the lookout for "bookworms"	3 Be sure to log all your reading minutes on Pledgestar!	4 Collect all offline donations (checks and cash) to turn in tomorrow.	5 YOU DID IT! Thank you for participating in Earhart's inaugural Read-A-Thon!	6 Send an email thanking all your donors and letting them know how much you read!	FINAL AWARDS 7 -Student with the most minutes read, per grade -Class with the highest average minutes read -Class with highest % of fundraising participation	8/9 SPRING BREAK!

CONTEST INFORMATION

Friday Prize Drawings
- Friday, March 17: Every student who has their Pledgestar website setup will be entered in the prize drawing.
- Friday, March 24: Every student who has minutes read logged in Pledgestar will be entered into the prize drawing.
- Friday, March 31: Every student who has emailed at least one donation request via Pledgestar will be entered into the prize drawing.

Friday drawing winners will be announced at morning ceremony, and at least one winner per grade will be selected.

School Award: If we meet our $80,000 fundraising goal, the school will have a popsicle party!

Individual Awards: The student with the most minutes read, $25 in Scholastic Dollars for one winner per grade.

Class Awards:
- Class with the highest average minutes read per grade; special treat party and a special prize for the teacher
- Class with the highest percentage of fundraising participation; special treat party and a special prize for the teacher